10 7.3 ELECTION OF NATIONAL CONVENTION DELEGATES
11

12 A) In accordance with these Rules, the Call of the Republican National Committee and 13 as allowed by the Georgia Presidential Preference Primary Act, O.C.G.A. § 21-2-190, et seq., the 14 Delegates and Alternates to the National Convention shall be elected from the Districts at the 15 respective District Conventions and the Delegates and Alternates to the National Convention from 16 the State at large shall be elected at the State Convention. The GRP does not, therefore, choose to 17 elect any of its Delegates and Alternates to the Republican National Convention by primary.

18 B) Delegates and Alternates shall be allocated proportionally as follows:
19

20 1) No State at large Delegate or Alternate shall be allocated to any candidate 21 who receives less than 20% of the vote in the Georgia Presidential Preference Primary. If no 22 candidate reaches 20% of the statewide vote, the threshold becomes 15% for a candidate to 23 receive state at large delegates and alternates. In that instance, any candidate(s) receiving 15% or 24 more of the statewide vote will be allocated State at large Delegates and Alternates. If no 25 candidate reaches 15% of the statewide vote, the threshold becomes 10% for a candidate to 26 receive State at large Delegates and Alternates. In that instance, any candidate(s) receiving 10% 27 or more of the statewide vote will be allocated State at large Delegates and Alternates. The 28 allocation of State at large Delegates and Alternates shall be as provided in paragraph 4 of this 29 subsection B.
30

31 2) No fractional Delegate or Alternate shall be allocated.

1
2           3)     In each Congressional District, the three (3) Delegates and three (3) 3 Alternates shall be allocated proportionally based on the following: (1) any candidate who receives 4 the majority (50% + 1) of the Congressional District's Presidential Preference Primary vote shall 5 be allocated all three (3) of the Congressional District delegates and alternates; (2) if no candidate
6 receives the majority (50% + 1) of the Congressional District's Presidential Preference Primary 7 vote, the candidate receiving the highest number of the Congressional District's Presidential 8 Preference Primary votes shall be allocated two (2) delegates and two (2) alternates and the 9 candidate receiving the second highest number of the Congressional District's Presidential 10 Preference Primary votes shall be allocated one (1) delegate and one (1) alternate.

11
12           4)     At large Delegates and Alternates shall be allocated to the candidate(s) 13 receiving more than the requisite percentage of the vote set forth in paragraph 1 of this subsection 14 B, based on his or her percentage of the Statewide Presidential Preference Primary vote. Any 15 remaining Delegates and Alternates not allocated initially shall be apportioned proportionally, 16 based on the candidate's share of the statewide vote, until no such further apportionment can be 17 done. Any remaining at large Delegates and Alternates shall be awarded to the candidate receiving 18 the largest percentage of the vote. For the purpose of this allocation, RNC Delegates (State 19 Chairman, National Committee Woman and National Committee Man) shall be considered at large 20 delegates and be allocated to the candidate receiving the largest percentage of the vote.

21
22           Notwithstanding the above, if one candidate receives the majority (50% + 1) of the 23 statewide vote, that candidate will receive all the at large Delegates and Alternates to the 24 Convention.

25
26           The Georgia delegation to the Republican National Convention shall be bound 27 through the first ballot on a proportional basis as described above, except as otherwise provided 28 by O.C.G.A. § 21-2-197.

29

19 the plan subject to certain conditions, or (3) reject the plan. If the State Executive Committee takes 20 no action on the plan at least thirty (30) days prior to the date set in the Call for the Mass Meetings, 21 such plan shall be deemed approved and the County may proceed with this plan. Should any 22 precinct not caucus or not elect a full delegation, any unfilled delegate or alternate slots may not 23 be filled by any other precinct or by the Mass Meeting.

24            B) Notwithstanding any of the above, Counties whose population is 80,000 or fewer shall 25 hold both their Mass Meetings and County Conventions at a location on the date and time set by 26 the Call for County Conventions; provided however, that a County Committee may adopt a plan 27 to hold the Mass Meetings and County Conventions at a date and time other than that set forth in 28 the Call if such alternative date and time shall fall within the ten (10) day period ending on the 29 date and time for the County Conventions as set forth in the Call. Any such plan must be submitted 30 in writing by the County Chairman or other person designated by the County Committee to the 31 State Executive Committee to the attention of the State Chairman at GRP headquarters on or before

1 December 1 of the year preceding such Mass Meetings or Convention. With regard to any such 2 plan submitted on behalf of the County Committee, the State Executive Committee may: (1) 3 approve the plan as submitted, (2) approve the plan subject to certain conditions, or (3) reject the 4 plan. If the State Executive Committee takes no action on the plan at least thirty (30) days prior to 5 the date set in the Call for the Mass Meetings, such plan shall be deemed approved and the County
6 may proceed with this plan. The County Executive Committee in such a County may elect to opt 7 out of the requirements of this Rule 9.2 (B) that such County hold both its Mass Meetings and 8 County Convention on the same date, but it must give written notice of such election to the State 9 Executive Committee not later than December 1 of the year preceding such Mass Meetings and 10 County Conventions in order for such election to be effective. Population of the various Counties 11 for the purposes of this provision shall be determined by reference to the then-most recent 12 decennial U.S. Census.

13

14 9.3 PUBLICATION OF NOTICE OF MASS MEETINGS

15 A) Each County Chairman shall cause to be printed in a newspaper of general circulation
16 in each County the notice of the time and place of each Mass Meeting not less than fifteen (15) 17 days before the date of said Mass Meeting and by such other notice as may be directed by the 18 County Committee. The time and place of the County and Congressional District Conventions
19 shall be included in this notice. The County Chairman shall send to the State Secretary at GRP 20 headquarters a written or electronic copy of the publication of notice, together with the other 21 documents required by Rule 9.12, including the date of publication, within five (5) business days 22 after publication. [See Rule 9.11(A)].

23 B) The only required published notice shall be for Mass Meetings. In the notice published 24 by Counties under 80,000 where the Mass Meetings and County Convention are held under Rule 25 9.2(B), the notice shall specify that the Mass Meetings and County Convention will be held at 26 separate times on the same date at the same place. County Chairmen shall provide a written or 27 electronic copy of the notice to the State Secretary at GRP headquarters within five (5) business 28 days after publication.

29

1 9.4 ORGANIZATION OF VACANT PRECINCTS

2 Where for any reason a Mass Meeting is not conducted on the date set in the Call for such meetings
3 in odd-numbered years (other than pursuant to a plan adopted in accordance with Rule 9.2(A)), 4 the County Committee may, at any time after the State Convention held in such odd-numbered 5 years, elect one or more Precinct officers and committeemen for such Precinct to serve until the 6 next Mass Meeting or earlier removal from office in accordance with these Rules and the County
7 Party Rules.

8

9 9.5 MEETINGS & CONVENTIONS OPEN TO PUBLIC

10 The Mass Meetings and Conventions shall be open to the public as spectators.

11

12 9.6 ONLY ELECTORS WHO ARE DELEGATES AND SEATED ALTERNATES MAY 13 VOTE

14 Only qualified, registered, resident electors of a given Precinct, Rule 9.2(A) District, County, or 15 Congressional District may vote or be elected as a Delegate or Alternate or hold office in the 16 respective Mass Meeting or Convention.

17

18 9.7 USE OF PUBLIC BUILDINGS

19 Mass Meetings shall be held in buildings appropriate for public use, where practical and, except 20 in the case of a Rule 9.2(A) consolidation, within the geographic limits of the political subdivision
21 for which the Mass Meeting is conducted. The County Conventions shall be held in buildings 22 appropriate for public use, where practical, in the respective Counties. Congressional District 23 Conventions shall be held in buildings appropriate for public use, where practical, in the respective 24 Congressional Districts.

25

26 9.8 ALLOCATION OF DELEGATES TO COUNTY CONVENTIONS

27 Each Precinct shall be entitled to one Delegate and one Alternate to the County Convention.
28 In addition each Precinct shall be entitled to one additional Delegate and one additional Alternate 29 for each 50 votes and major fraction thereof (26 or more) cast for the Republican candidate for 30 President in the immediately preceding general election. Votes cast in advance and absentee 31 voting, where a precinct determination cannot be made, shall be allocated to the precincts in the 1 same percentage as those cast on election day. Provided however, that in lieu of the foregoing

2 calculation, pursuant to a plan adopted by the County Committee as provided in Rule 9.2(A): (A)
3 in Counties having population of over one hundred thousand (100,000), each Precinct shall be 4 entitled to one Delegate and one Alternate for each one hundred fifty (150) votes and major fraction
5 thereof (76 or more); or (B) in counties having a population of over five hundred thousand 6 (500,000), each precinct shall be entitled to one Delegate and one Alternate for each two hundred 7 and fifty (250) votes and major fraction thereof (126), cast for the Republican candidate for 8 President in the immediately preceding general election. Any county which has had changes in 9 precinct lines since the last Presidential Election may use the vote totals cast for the Republican 10 candidate for Governor in the immediately preceding general election to allocate their county 11 convention delegates. In such case the formula used to calculate the number of delegates and 12 alternates for each precinct shall be the same as previously stated in this section. Population of the 13 various Counties for the purposes of this provision shall be determined by reference to the then-14 most recent decennial U.S. Census.

15

16 9.9 ORGANIZATION OF UNORGANIZED COUNTIES

17 Where for any reason a County Convention is not conducted on the date set in a Call for 18 such Conventions in odd-numbered years (other than pursuant to a plan adopted in accordance 19 with Rule 9.2(B)), one or more officers and County Committee members may be elected for such 20 county: (A) if such County is located within a single Congressional District, by the District 21 Committee for the District in which the County is located; or (B) if such County is located in more 22 than one Congressional District, by the District Committee for the District in which the largest 23 number of Republican votes was cast in such County for the Republican nominee for President in 24 the most recent presidential election; or (C) if the applicable District Committee shall have failed 25 to take action to organize such County within thirty (30) days following written notice from the 26 GRP, by the State Executive Committee. Such officers and committee members shall serve until 27 the earlier of the next County Convention or resignation or removal from office in accordance with 28 these Rules and the County Party Rules.

29

1 9.10 ALLOCATION OF DELEGATES TO DISTRICT AND STATE CONVENTIONS

2 Each County shall be entitled to one Delegate and one Alternate to the State Convention. In 3 addition, each County shall be entitled to one Delegate and one Alternate for each one-thousand 4 (1000) votes or major fraction thereof (501 or more), cast for the Republican candidate for 5 President in the last general election. Each County shall be entitled to one Delegate and one 6 Alternate to the District Convention. In cases of split counties, said delegate shall be allotted to 7 the District with the largest number of votes cast for the Republican candidate for President in the 8 last general election. In addition, each County shall be entitled to one Delegate and one Alternate 9 for each seven hundred fifty (750) votes or major fraction thereof (376), cast for the Republican 10 candidate for President in the last general election. Delegates and Alternates may not be 11 transferred among Counties within a District.
12
